Organized by the Research Project “International Law and the New Governance after the Economic Crisis” and the Department of Public International Law

Conference Co-Chairs

Antonio Segura-Serrano
Professor of International Law and European Law

Luis M.Hinojosa-Martínez
Chair of International Law and European Law

THE REFORM OF INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC GOVERNANCE

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

University of Granada, 9-10 October 2014

Organized by the Research Project "International Law and the New Governance after the Economic Crisis" and the Department of Public International Law

Conference Co-Chairs:

Antonio Segura-Serrano
Professor of International Law and European Law

Luis M. Hinojosa-Martínez
Chair of International Law and European Law

Sala de Conferencias - Facultad de Derecho
Plaza de la Universidad, 1 - 18001 Granada

www.granadaconference2014.es

PROGRAMME

1) The reform of the financial architecture, October 9, 2014

9:00 Opening Address.

9:15 Professor Rosa M. Lastra, Queen Mary University of London: "Do we need a world financial organisation?".

10:30 Coffee Break.

10:50 Matthias Goldman, Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law: "The Diverging Rationalities of Public Finance and Law: Towards a Deliberative Approach in Monetary, Debt, and Banking Regulation".

Nizan Geslevich Packin, Zicklin School of Business, Baruch College, City University New York: "Supersize Them? Large Banks, Taxpayers and the Subsidies that Lay Between".

12:00 Professor Charles Goodhart, London School of Economics: "A critical evaluation of Bail-in as a Bank Recapitalisation Mechanism".

13:30 Lunch Break.

16:00 Professor Kern Alexander, University of Zurich & Member of the European Parliament's Expert Committee on Financial Services: "Stability and Sustainability in International Banking Regulation".

17:15 Coffee Break.

17:35 David Zaring, Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania: "A Paradigm of Global Financial Regulation".

Vassilis Paliouras, University of Technology, Sydney School of Law: "State of Necessity and Sovereign Insolvency".

Mika Viljanen, University of Turku: "Where is banking regulation made after the crisis?".

Manga Kuoh, Former Staff IMF and WB, and Counselor, "Globalization and Financial Architecture Reform: An African Perspective".

2) The reform of the trading regime, October 10, 2014

9:00 Professor Friedl Weiss, University of Vienna: "The WTO – A Suitable Case for Treatment. Is it 'reformable'?".

9:15 Coffee Break.

10:35 Valentina Vadi, Lancaster University: "A History of Success? Judicial Governance and Proportionality in International Economic Law".

Catharine Titi, Université Panthéon-Assas Paris II : "Reform of international economic governance: economic crises, sovereign debt restructurings and the shifting landscape of international investment law".

Carolina Palma, University of Costa Rica: "The role of WTO, FAO and OECD in addressing food security: a case of multilevel governance".

12:00 Coffee Break.

12:20 Paolo Farah, West Virginia University: "The Recent WTO Case Law on Subsidies to Renewable Energy".

Jenya Grigorova, University of Paris I, Panthéon-Sorbonne: "The international trading regime and the regulation of trade in energy resources. Is reform necessary and is a new Energy Agreement within the WTO framework the way to go?".

13:30 Lunch Break.

16:00 Professor Andrew Lang, London School of Economics: "The Space for Reform".

17:15 Coffee Break.

17:35 Chios Carmody, University of Western Ontario: "On Interdependence: the WTO and the Made in the World (MIWI) Initiative".

Gregory Messenger, University of Oxford: "Reforming the Law and Institutions of the WTO: the Dangers of Unexpected Consequences".

18:30 Closing Address.