课程简介
Course Description

This course in European Studies for master and PhD students is given in collaboration between the European University Centre (EUC), School of Government and Centre for European Studies at Peking University. The participating universities from EUC are Peking University, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Autonomous University of Madrid, Lund University, University College London, University of Milan and University of Warsaw.

Previous studies in European Studies are an advantage but not a precondition. The students are supposed to have English language proficiency to a level that enables them to follow the lectures and take active part in the seminar discussions. The examination in form of a final paper may be written in either English or Chinese.

There will be some scholarships for studies in Europe available for students participating in the course. The requirement to be eligible to apply for a scholarship is that the final paper is written in English.
