The Programme can be downloaded here.

Saturday, 31 August 2013
09:00-10:30  Parallel Panels - AGORAE

Agora I
Governance
Chair: Aristoteles Constantinides, University of Cyprus
- Wei Shen, Shanghai Jiao Tong University Law School
  The mode of global governance from below: Lex mercatoria as part of the superstructure
- Yaraslav Kryvi, University of West London
  International administrative law: Between real law and soft law
- Mavluud Sattorova, University of Liverpool
  The impact of international investment law on governmental conduct: Enabling good governance?
- Nikolaos Vouliaris, King’s College London
  State responsibility for acts of international organizations: Appraisal of a neglected facet of global governance

Agora II
Trade
Chair: Anastasios Gourgourinis, National & Kapodistrian University of Athens
- Paolo D. Farah, Edge Hill University, United Kingdom & gLAWcol – Global Law Initiatives for Sustainable Development
  Towards an International Legal Framework for Energy: the OPEC and the World Trade Organization
- Ilaria Espa, LUISS Guido Carli University Rome
  Emerging issues affecting trade in energy resources: the case of dual pricing and export taxes and the role of WTO
- Junianto James Losari, Centre for International Law (National University of Singapore)
  Legitimate countermeasures in international trade law and their illegality in international investment law
- Wolfgang Alschner, Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies, Geneva
  Duplicating the trade law ‘spaghetti bowl’? - Increasing regionalization and overlap of investment treaties
- Chiara Cellerino, University of Genoa
  Recent trends of Common Commercial Policy of the European Union: From global-to-regional (and return?) in the governance of international economic order

Agora III
Resources
Chair: Ilias Plakokefalos, University of Amsterdam
- Mindia Vashakmadze, Max Planck Foundation for International Peace and the Rule of Law
  Shared responsibility for water in Central Asia
- Alexandros X.M. Ntovas, University of Southampton
  Transjurisdictional fishery resources and the constitutionalisation effect of compulsory dispute settlement procedures
  Antonio Antoniovaldes, University of Virgini
Programme

- Biodiversity, marine protected areas and areas beyond national jurisdiction
  - Antonia Zervaki, University of Athens
    - The cultural heritage of mankind beyond UNESCO: The case of international financial institutions

10:30-11:00 Coffee break

11:00-12:30 RoundTables

UNCLOS Birthday party: 30 years on
In 2012, there was the 30th anniversary of the opening for signature of the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea. Now that the ‘birthday party’ is over, it is time to look ahead at the challenges for the next 30 years of the Convention. Issues concerning boundary delimitation, the delineation of outer continental shelf, the management of the Deep Sea Bed Area and the public order of the oceans will be discussed as forming the agenda of the LOSC at 60.
Chair: Alexander Yankov, former Judge, International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea, President ILA
  - Haritini Dippa, National & Kapodistrian University of Athens
    - Eastern Mediterranean: Maritime boundaries in troubled waters
  - Erik Franckx & Marco Benatar, Vrije Universiteit Brussel
    - Bilateral maritime delimitation agreements and third States
  - Christopher Ward, 12th Floor Chambers, Sidney
    - South China Sea on the rocks

Legal issues on sovereign debt
The repercussions of the 2007-2009 financial crisis include a substantive legacy on issues of sovereign debt. Monetary and financial affairs of states, traditionally viewed as constituting the very core of their domaines réservé, are increasingly directly influenced by a multitude of international or transnational actors. This panel takes note of the most recent developments in the context of sovereign debt and seeks to provide a coherent account of the conceptual and pragmatic distances covered and the road that lies ahead.
Chair: Emiliou Avgouleas, University of Edinburgh
  - Lee C. Buchheit, Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP
    - Sovereign debt restructurings: The issues at hand
  - Yuefen Li, UNCTAD
    - Legal aspects of a debt-restructuring mechanism
  - Christos Hadjiemmanuill, University of Piraeus
    - Sovereign debt and banks' capital requirements
  - Emmanuel Mastromanos, National & Kapodistrian University of Athens
    - The EU regulatory framework with regard to credit rating agencies
  - Régis Bismuth, Université de Poitiers
    - Does freedom of speech protect credit rating agencies? An assessment of recent EU initiatives to regulate unsolicited sovereign credit ratings

12:30-13:30 Closing session

13:30-15:30 Farewell lunch